Great Game on Watson Field

Before a large Easter day crowd the South Side Independents were handed a 10 to 3 defeat at the handr of the Watson baseball outfit, the contest lasing twelve innings. The game was marked by some wonderful plays and also heavy hitting. In the twelfth inning with two mendown and Powell on third base, Powell started for the plate. Abbott, who was pitching for the South Siders threw to Catcher Scagnelli, the ball got away from him and the winning run was scored.

Scanell, the ball got away from him and the winning run was scored.

Smith started for the Independents and lasted a little over an inning. He was touched for eight hits and six runs in the time he was in the box. C. Long took his place with two men on base in the second inning with one man down. A wild peg by Scagnelli allowed another run in this inning. This stopped the scoring until the last of the ninth when Watson was in the rear by the score of 9-7. They staged a come-back and tied the score when it seemed like a sure win for the local boys. From then on the game was a deadlock until the fatal twelvth. L. Cong who was pitching good ball developed a sore arm and gave way to C. Abbott in this round. The first two men were easy outs, but Powell dropped a lince liner over second for a base, he stole second and third. With two strikes on Murray he started for home. The ball was played to the plate but the throw made by Abbott was a little high and the ball rolled off of the top of Scagnelli's mitt, giving the Watson team were hit hard but wonderful work in the field by their teammates saved them many times when hits meant runs.
